AD: Tell me u have nothing to do with lulzsec.
me: I'm not involved with them
me: I know the main players from Anon
AD: Good. I don't trust Lulzsec. Something fishy there.
AD: Gov needed a real reason to pay attention to cyber crimes and lulzsec is giving them just that.
me: I'm not a fan of what they're doing
AD: They will bring the full b&hammer down on all of us.
AD: the lulz were always able to be over writen with a cause for justice with anon's. Lulzsec is out of hand.
me: I agree
me: they're not doing anything of real use
AD: Not sure if I could condone calling the feds on someone but..http://i.imgur.com/HlHnJ.png
AD: This is sewious
me: well, there's a lot here I don't understand me: I've been trying to just keep my distance and run my group AD: Not asking u to get involved if u don't want to. Trust me I've been keeping my distance after my scare. But this is something I can't keep ignoring.
